Hola! I'm Dora and this is my friend, Pablo. Pablo's really funny, and he's great with younger kids. So we decided to put on a magic show for my little brother and sister's class! Right, Pablo?

Totally! Everybody loves a magic show! And I knew my magic ring trick would be a big hit. But...

...no matter how hard I tried,
I couldn't get those rings to connect! Dora told me I could do it, so I kept on practicing.

Then Dora's Papi brought over his special magic hat. Maybe the hat could help me do my trick.

But before I could even try the hat, a bunny popped out and ran away with it!

We chased the bunny through a door and... POOF! We were in Magic Land, an amazing place full of cool tricks. It was perfect for a master magician like me. I just needed to find that hat.

The problem was, a mean magician named Víctor found it first, and used it to steal all the magic in Magic Land! No way!

The problem was, a mean magician named Víctor found it first, and used it to steal all the magic in Magic Land! No way!

Víctor ran off with the hat and we chased after him. We couldn't let him get away with this!

Dora used magic tricks to try to stop Víctor, but he kept dodging us.

I knew if I could get my rings to connect, I could use them to grab the hat. I kept practicing my ring trick, but it just wouldn't work.

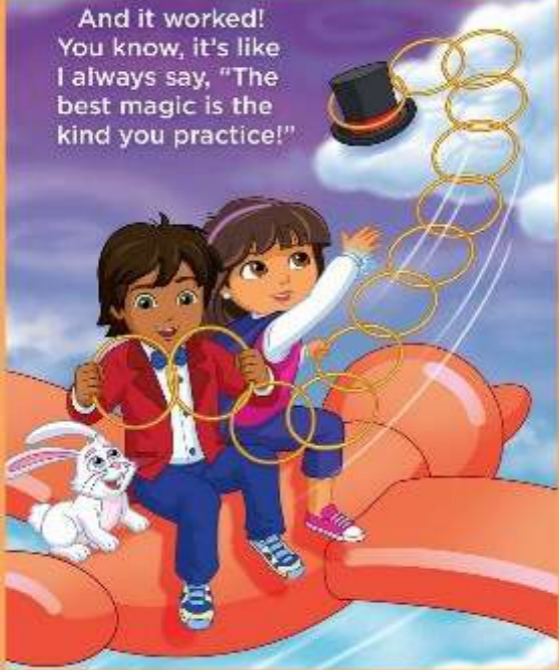

Suddenly, the hat blew out of Víctor's hands and landed way up high on a cloud.

"We need to lasso that hat," said Dora. "You can do it, Pablo! Tú puedes." So I gave my ring trick one last try. Abracadabra!

And it worked!
You know, it's like I always say, "The best magic is the kind you practice!"

Victor said he was sorry. He only took the hat so he could do magic tricks too.

So I told Victor, "If you want to learn a magic trick, you just have to practice!"

And that's how I learned to do my ring trick before the big show back in Playa Verde! And I was right... my ring trick was totally a hit!

I wonder what I should do for my next trick.

Hey, what's your favorite magic trick?
